About This Game

Help Hoodie Girl fight the evil MediaBall's inane advertisements and get a new high score!

A game in two parts: First, brave your way through a confusing maze of menus, then take to the air as the indefatigable "Hoodie Girl" and blast sentient advertisements into cold, hard cash!

FEATURES:

- Loop-tastic speed insanity! Every time you beat a level, the game speed increases!
- Time Pulse gameplay -- Slow down time and turn enemy bullets into score drops!
- 2-Player local co-op
- Weekly Leaderboard! Show up often + Show Off your play skills!
- Brand new Steam Achievements!
- PARKOUR!!!
- Based on a true story*!

*Plus slight embellishments

===== WAIT, WHAT IS THIS? =====

Okay, so the actual shoot-em up plays like this:

It's an infinitely looping, high score game.

This is not a regular shooter, the level structure is not like R-Type or Ikaruga or Dodonpachi or most shmups. There is only one level, but it keeps changing with each loop.

The crazy part is, every time you beat the level, the speed of the game increases. It gets quite challenging by loop 5, and incredibly difficulty by loop 8.

To help out, there's a powerup called 'Time Pulse', in limited quantity. It slows down time temporarily, and if you shoot the enemy bullets during this time, you zap them into cash. And for every so-many bullets you destroy like this, you get a new Time Pulse! It's good to get you out of a jam, and man does it get tough later on.

Once you understand the flow of the loops, you'll know when the best time to spend your Time Pulse, and you'll start to figure out how to chain them, earn more, to get further.

No online co op..... I cant make sence of this game im high just looking at the visuals. its a great bullet hell shooter. its like you are in lsd land really good bullet hell shooter. Great find!. this game is addictive as fk, good game to play to kill time.. Pretty good considering it's more of a joke game than anything! It's full of memes, cat pictures, and random sound effects but the shmup is solid. I would and will play it again soon.

I really think they could have tried a little bit harder overall, even in their mock menu they have a bunch of fake tiles to click on to make you think you are at an interface like the Xbox dashboard... But many of the buttons are duplicated, there are different tabs with buttons on each but all four fake buttons on each page will show you the same couple-second-long animated gif. It would have been so easy for them to include a few more gifs to make it actually interesting to go through them. It just goes to show how little effort was put into the game overall.

Also there is only one game mode, Parkour, which is not parkour at all. It's a shoot-em-up game. The parkour part is the girl says "PARKOUR!" every time you shoot. It gets annoying after about a minute.

With all of it's drawbacks, the gameplay is solid. I had a lot of fun playing it and I wish they polished it up a bit. I think the name of the game "Game Type", and the inclusion of a mock game store would have been a great opportunity to include more than one game mode. They would have had a hit on their hands if they had 3-5 different game modes. But what they ended up with is a relatively decent shmup.. Game Type is dated, crude, short but I guess that's what it's suppose to be..lol Typical little arcade shooter thingy, no worse than any other of this particular genre. Certainly provides the entertainment value of these types of games. Grab it if you're into this genre,. Great find!. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=a768LxY5CzM>. This game has given me the weirdest dreams in the world! 0_0..... quot;Kids, drugs are bad.... mmmkay? See this is why you should not smoke the marryjuwanna and program at the same time, mmmkay? Stuff like this game results from sinful wacky tobacky, the gonja, the sticky icky... Fact is we need to be more careful in the future when making games. Think of the adults who might play this game and suffer brain damage!"

Honestly, this game is crazy-uniquely-fun. I do recommend you see past the initial strangness of the game. This is like Adult Swim took acid and then a stab at making an anime shooter that wasn't anime. It's got a unique spin on a game and after just a couple tries it's kind of addicting.

Plus after beating Explosionade a few weeks ago I kind of enjoy this studio's wacky games. Get in the bundle too. Keep up the strangeness. :) Mentally insufficient review over.

Replayability: 8/10

Final Consideration: This game is awesome! When you start,you will see a interface like a console,that you have to navigate on it to start the game,when you start the game,looks like it are crazy,but when you going pass the levels,you will see a excellent bullet hell game,like touhou or others. Absolutely Recommended!. In this modern age of digital distribution, Steam sales, and consumer advocacy vlogs, it can get a little hard to remember way back in 2011 when Microsoft decided that they could do whatever they wanted with no consequences. Mommy's Best games were (as I understand it) a bunch of scrubby punks who made some surprisingly decent games in the Xbox 360's proprietary indie game framework, and this is their God Save the Queen. Game Type is dated, crude, short, and angry. It reminds us of the time a multi-billion dollar software corporation sold out..
